Role Of Education

- by Cynthia Prinita, CL. IX

"Education is a treasure, that's priceless and true,

A gem that shines bright, with a value that shines through.

It's a key that unlocks door to a future so bright,

A passport to possibilities that gives me an insight.

A masterpiece of knowledge that is at work place,

It is a canvas, where minds are painted with grace.

Education is a garden, where minds are nurtured with care,

A place where dreams are cultivated, and futures are prepared.

The seeds of knowledge are sown, with a gentle hand,

And the harvest of wisdom, is a treasure to stand.

Education is a song, that echoes through the mind,

A symphony of learning, that's truly divine and kind".

Madras Day

- by Mohith .H, Cl. VII

A city deserves to celebrate its birthday, and Madras, that is Chennai certainly deserves it. So a small group of people who love this city launched a unique celebration in the year 2004.

The birth of Madras is considered to be August, 22nd 1639. It was on that day, in that year, that a piece of land, where Fort. St. George stands today, was purchased by the British East India Company.

The deal was struck by Francis Day, his Dubash Beri Thimmappa, and their superior, Andrew Cogan, with the local Nayak rulers. It is believed that this deal was made on August 22nd 1639. Out of the Fort, St. George grew settlements. Then the villages around it were brought together. And then, the old and new towns linked up. And then we had the city. Today, Chennai stands tall for a variety of reasons. Education, Healthcare, IT, History, Tourism, Auto Industries, Movies etc.,

Madras Day focuses on the city, its heritage, its past and its present and the core team motivates community groups, companies and campuses in the city to host events that celebrates the City.

Heritage walks, School exchange programmes, talks and contests, poetry, music, quiz, food fest, rallies and photo exhibitions are organized and celebrated.

At our School the School Heritage Club organises a short film on Madras Day depicting our Heritage and Culture. A variety of Photographs of Old Madras are also displayed to remind us of our rich past. This is followed by various competition like quiz, essay writing and model making for the students

Happy Birthday Lord Ganesha

- by Rakshitha, CL. IV

Lord Ganesha is one of my favourite God. The Birthday of Lord Ganesha falls in the month of August or September every year. It is popularly known as Ganesh Chaturthi.

We celebrate this day with all members in our family. My grandmother and mother make delicious "Modhagam" and "kozhukattai". My father and me go and get flowers, umbrellas and garland to decorate Lord Ganesha.

My grandfather helps us to clean the house and decorate. Also, he does the pooja for Lord Ganesha.

We all go to the temple on this day. This day is not only a celebration for us, but also to spend time with our family and friends. We celebrate this day with great joy.
