Diwali

by M.Harshitha Cl - V

Diwali is one of the happiest festivals in India. It is known as the festival of lights.

On this day, we clean and decorate our homes with flowers, colourful rangoli and beautiful lamps. We wear new clothes and share sweets with our family and friends. Children enjoy bursting crackers and playing with sparklers. The whole sky looks bright and beautiful.

Diwali teaches us that good always wins over evil. The beauty of Diwali is not the lights we light, but it is the happiness we bring to others. We forget our worries and spread love, joy and kindness.

The brightest Diwali is the one that fills every heart with love and every home with laughter.

Children's Day – A Day Of Smiles

- by Kasi Subashree Cl-IV

Children are the flowers of the Nation and hope of tomorrow. Children's Day is celebrated on 14th November every year in India to honour Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, who loved children dearly. He is lovingly known as Chacha Nehru.

Every child is special, with a unique dream and a bright future. Children's Day reminds us that every child deserves love, care, education and happiness. Schools celebrate this day with colourful programmes, games, songs and competitions. It fills every child's heart with joy and excitement.

Let us promise to learn new things, help others, respect our elders and make our country proud.

"Every child is a little star, shining brightly wherever they are."

Happy Children's Day!

My Dream Vacation

- by S. Pavina Cl-V

Everyone has a dream vacation, and mine is to visit Switzerland. It is a beautiful country known for its snow-covered mountains, peaceful lakes, and green valleys. I have always seen pictures and videos of Switzerland and it looks like a magical place from a fairy tale.

I want to visit cities like Zurich, Lucerne and Interlaken. I dream of riding the cable cars in the Alps and enjoying the breathtaking views. I would also love to visit the famous lake Geneva and take a peaceful boat ride. The idea of walking through flower-filled meadows and small wooden cottages excites me.

One of the things I look forward to most is tasting Swiss chocolates and cheese. I have read that Switzerland has some of the best chocolates in the world. I also want to visit a chocolates factory and see how they are made.

My dream vacation would be a mix of adventure and relaxation. I would love to go skiing, take long nature walks and click beautiful pictures. Spending time in such a calm and beautiful place.

I hope one day my dream of visiting Switzerland comes true and becomes the most memorable trip of my life.

Festival of Lights

by S.G. Prithivirajan Cl-V

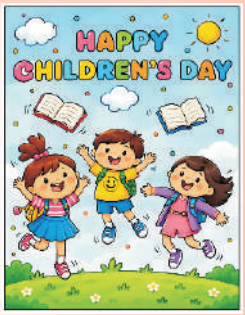

Diwali is one of the major festivals in India. It is also known as Deepawali which means 'a row of lights'. Diwali is a five-day festival. The third day is the main day of Diwali. On this day Lord Rama returned to Ayodhya after 14 years of exile. Diwali is celebrated in all parts of India with great pomp and show.

Shops, streets and houses are illuminated with lights, lamps and rangolis on this occasion. We wear new clothes and exchange gifts and sweets with each other. We worship Goddess Laxmi and Lord Ganesha. It is the festival of love, joy and brotherhood.

At night fireworks make the sky bright and beautiful. Diwali teaches us to remove darkness and spread light, love and positivity everywhere. This festival not only celebrates light but also the values of kindness, love and community. The warmth and positivity of Diwali helps strengthen family bonds and creates lasting memories.

My Shadow Is My Only Friend

by R.Ilakkiya Cl - VIII

When the golden Sun begins to fall,
And quiet creeps along the wall,
One silent partner stays nearby,
To whisper softly, "I'm here."

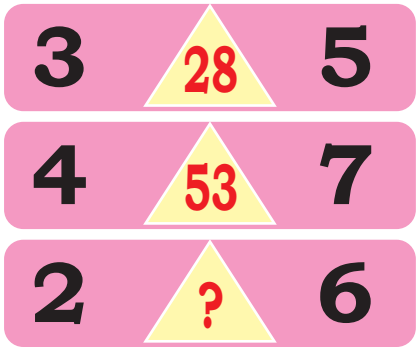

It bends and stretches on the floor,
And waits outside the open door.
It walks beside me, step by step,
To guard the secrets, I have kept.

When halls grow still and shadows rise,
It sees the world through the thoughtful eyes.
It matches every move I make,
A constant bond no one can break.

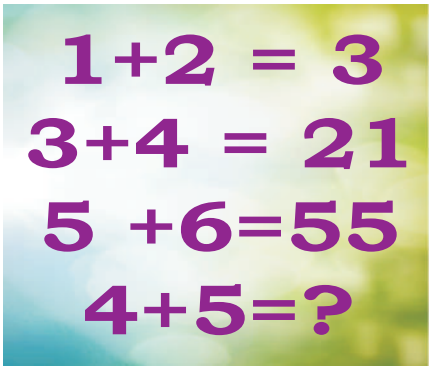

No sudden words, no walking away,
From morning till the end of the day.
When all the world has moved ahead,
My shadow walks with me instead-
as my "Best FRIEND".
