Christmas Time

- by Nethra KS CL.X

Christmas is one of the most joyful and awaited festivals celebrated all over the world on 25th December. It marks the birth of Jesus Christ who is considered the son of God and a symbol of love, peace and kindness. People of all ages look forward to this festival because it brings happiness, family time and the spirit of giving.

Weeks before Christmas, homes, schools, shops and streets are decorated beautifully with lights, stars, wreaths and colourful ornaments. Children enjoy decorating the Christmas tree, which is an important tradition. They hang bells, balls, ribbons, candy canes and a shining star on top of the tree.

Another exciting part of Christmas is Santa Claus. Children believe that Santa comes on Christmas Eve riding a sledge, pulled by reindeers. He brings gifts, chocolates and toys for children who have been good through the year. Many kids keep stockings or small bags, hoping Santa will fill them with surprises.

Christmas is truly a magical festival that fills our hearts with warmth, joy and hope every year.

At School we celebrate Christmas in the 1st week of December due to our exams. It is a joyous moment for all at School with dance, drama, carols and Santa Claus distributing sweets.

New Year- The New Beginning

- by Alveena Sharleez N CL. III

A brand-new year is here today,
Bringing fun and cheer our way.
We clap our hands and say "hurray!"
The New Year starts in a happy way.

New days to learn and games to play,
New dreams to chase in everyday.
We try our best in all we do,
And shine like stars the whole year through.

May this year be bright and clear,
Joyful and full of cheer,
With smiles we shout for all to hear:
"Welcome, Welcome, New Year!"

Winter's Candlelight

- by Pranitha B IX - C

Snow drifts softly through the night,
Falling feathers, glowing white.
Windows gleam with candle flame,
Each one whispering your name.

Laughing hums in frosted air,
Joy wraps hearts in gentle care.

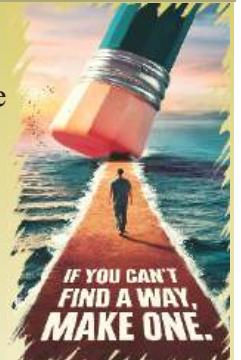

Bells ring bright from far and near,
Calling love to gather here.

Evergreen and silver glow,
Footprints dancing in the snow.
Warmth that shimmers, pure and true,
Christmas weaves its light in you.

World Achievers

- by Keziya P CL.VI

The World has been shaped and reshaped by great achievers who have worked hard, overcome challenges, and left a lasting mark on history. A World achiever is a person who reaches great heights through determination, creativity and dedication. They serve as role models for all of us and leave a mark on the World.

One of the greatest achievers is Mahatma Gandhi who fought for India's freedom using truth and non-violence. His principles influenced not only India but also leaders around the World. Another World achiever is Albert Einstein, whose discoveries in science changed the way we understand the Universe. His hard work and imagination made him a symbol of knowledge.

In the modern world, achievers like Malala Yousafzai inspire us. She fought for girls' education despite facing many dangers. Today, she is the youngest Nobel Prize winner. Similarly, Nelson Mandela dedicated his life to ending apartheid in South Africa and became a symbol of peace and equality.

World achievers are not only found in politics or science but also in sports. Sachin Tendulkar, Usain Bolt, and Serena Williams have shown that discipline and passion can make people a legend. In technology, Steve Jobs and Elon Musk have created innovations that changed our daily lives.

These World achievers teach us that success is not easy, but with courage, patience and vision, anything is possible. They prove that one person can make or change anything.

New Year -2026

- by S.B. Jegapriyan CL.II

New Year is a special festival celebrated all around the world with joy and excitement. It marks the beginning of a fresh year and gives everyone a chance to start again with new hopes and dreams. People believe that the New Year brings new opportunities and positive changes in life.

New Year is celebrated on 1st January. On this day, people decorate their homes, wear new clothes, and spend time with their family and friends. Many people celebrate by attending parties, watching fireworks, and enjoying delicious food. Schools, offices, and public places are also decorated beautifully to welcome the New Year.

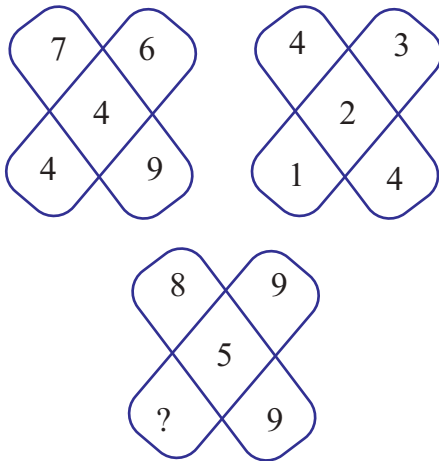

One of the most important parts of New Year is making resolutions. Resolutions are promises we make to ourselves to become better. Students promise to study well, be punctual, and stay disciplined. Some people decide to exercise regularly, stay healthy, or learn new skills in the coming year. These resolutions help us stay focused and motivated.

New Year also teaches us valuable lessons. It reminds us to correct past mistakes and look forward with positivity. It encourages us to be kind, helpful, and responsible. Families come together and share happiness, which strengthens relationships and spreads love.

New Year is a beautiful festival that fills everyone's heart with hope and happiness. It inspires us to set goals, work hard, and make the upcoming year better than the last. Celebrating New Year helps us welcome new beginnings with confidence and joy.
